Dear Mr. Schultz:

Re: Watergate Defendants -- Bernard L. Barker and Eugenio R. Martinez

Reference is made to your letter of August 13, 1973 in which you requested information about the service of certain of your clients with this Agency.

Through the Office of the Special Prosecutor we have forwarded to Judge John J. Sirica the information you requested on Messrs. Bernard L. Barker and Eugenio R. Martinez. This information is classified SECRET and we have advised Judge Sirica that the Agency has no objection to either you or the defendants reading these documents.

You also requested similar information on Mr. Frank A. Sturgis based on your understanding that he was at one time employed by the Agency. I believe Mr. Lawrence R. Houston advised Mr. Overby in a recent telephone conversation that Mr. Sturgis has never been employed by the CIA. I am further advising you to you.

Sincerely,

Sincerely,

John S. Warner
